

ADVANCED STUDIES FUND (ASF) SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM GUIDELINES & SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

Orangewood Foundation Advanced Studies Fund (ASF) Scholarships provide financial assistance to former foster youth who are college graduates seeking assistance in pursuit of advanced studies. The intention of the Advanced Studies Scholarship is to serve as supplemental funding and not to cover the full cost of tuition, books, supplies, and living expenses. Submitting an application does not guarantee funding. You can contact Orangewood Foundation staff to assist you with questions by emailing: cetzold@orangewoodfoundation.org.

A. APPLICATION PROCESS / FUNDING PERIOD

Eligible students must complete the Advanced Studies Fund Scholarship Application each year and must provide supporting documentation. The annual funding period is aligned with our fiscal year, from July 1st to June 30th. Funding does not roll over into the next funding period. Funding for subsequent years in pursuit of advanced studies is not guaranteed with the award of initial support. Eligible students may request consideration for support from the Advanced Studies Fund in pursuit of graduate school, professional certification, or additional training required to obtain a career goal. All Advanced Studies Fund (ASF) Scholarship applications will be reviewed by the Advanced Studies Fund Committee (Orangewood Staff and ASF founders). Final funding decisions will be made by June 30th for the next school year. Applicants may be required to attend an interview at Orangewood Foundation offices in Santa Ana, CA. If travel to Orange County is not possible, a video conference call may be arranged.

Application process:

- Application submission period: March 1st - May 1st
- Applicants Notified of Denial or Advancement to Interviews: Mid/Late May
- Applicant interviews (for selected students): Mid May – Early June
- Applicant Notified of Acceptance or Denial: June
